

Overview of the Foundation's forms of support in 2022

Form of support	Projects	Postdoctoral projects	Grand projects	Research networks
Eligible to apply by	an individual researcher or small group of researchers	an individual researcher, who may apply for up to three years after obtaining a doctoral degree	a group of at least four researchers, with strong international element in the research group	a group of researchers, with a great majority of the participants coming from research environments outside Sweden
Funding for	research			networking
Project period	2 or 3 years	2 years	4 or 5 years	1 year
Start of the project	1 January 2023			1 September 2022
An additional year of grant availability is added to the project period	yes			no
Maximal amount of the grant	max. SEK 6 million for a three-year project max. SEK 4 million for a two-year project	salary funding may cover 80–100% of a full-time annual position	max. SEK 25 million for a five-year grand project max. SEK 20 million for a four-year grand project	max. SEK 150,000
Grant administrator	Södertörn University			higher education institution in Sweden, the network must include researchers at Södertörn University
Can doctoral students be included?	no		yes
Number of stages in the application process	2		1
Call opens	Monday, 10 January 2022 at 9:00 am
Last application date	stage 1: Wednesday, 2 February 2022 at 3:00 pm stage 2: Wednesday, 27 April 2022 at 3:00 pm		Wednesday, 2 February 2022 at 3:00 pm

For detailed information see instructions for respective form of support.